

THE GRAPEVINE – Issue 2: 25th March 2020

Dear Friends,

Greetings to you all. I pray for each of you every day that you are keeping well. If you are unable to get out and about I hope that you have the all support you need from family, neighbours and friends. If you are in need of any help please do contact anyone of us on the support list below and we will do all we can to help. I wrote last week that Imogen has been co-opted onto the deaconate. This week I am pleased to inform you that Adrian has offered to stay on the deaconate until he knows more about his and Julie's future plans with BMS. I am also pleased to inform you that Allan Hancock is home from hospital.

If the predictions are correct there will be a real strain on the NHS and Social Care over the coming days and weeks and many will sadly lose their fight for life. These will be testing times for us all but especially for all our healers. We must pray that they will receive the peace and endurance of Christ.

My neighbour watched last Sunday's broadcast on YouTube and texted to thank me for it and said she didn't have a Bible. Within minutes of me giving her a Bible she texted again to say how helpful she had found Psalm 43. It was both an inspiring and inspired choice in these days. You may wish to meditate on the Psalmist's words:

Send out your light and your truth; let them guide me. Let them lead me to your holy mountain, to the place where you live. There I will go to the altar of God, to God—the source of all my joy. I will praise you with my harp, O God, my God!

Why am I discouraged? Why is my heart so sad? I will put my hope in God! I will praise him again— my Saviour and my God! Psalm 43:3-5

The GRAPEVINE goes out by email and post every Wednesday. If you know of anyone who would appreciate the bulletin by email or post please let Stan Woods know.

Video Contact using YouTube: An email with link(s) to the latest CBC Broadcast(s) are sent to all with an email address registered in our CBC Directory.
